Local and national groups which offer activities for families

Royal National Institute for Blind (RNIB)
The leading national charity offering information, support (including emotional support) and advice.
http://www.rnib.org.uk

National Blind Children’s Society
For children and young people; it offers Family Weekends and CustomEyes specially adapted books available at normal retail prices.
http://www.nbcs.org.uk/

SENSE
For information on their services, networks, events for families, holidays and short breaks.
http://www.sense.org.uk

VICTA
An organisation that supports families and offers family days, trips and activities.
http://www.victa.org.uk/

Nystagmus Network
National charity supporting children and families with Nystagmus.
http://www.nystagmusnet.org/cms/

Blind In Business
A national charity which can help young people into work and runs training events for families.
http://www.blindinbusiness.co.uk/
Camsight
A local charity based in Cambridge which supports children and their families, runs groups for pre-school children and parents, for older children and for teenagers.

Huntingdonshire Society for the blind
Local charity supporting people living in and around Huntingdon.
http://www.huntsblind.co.uk/

Isle of Ely Society for the Blind
This local association covers Fenland, Tyd St Giles, Stretham and Wisbech.
Email: ioesb@live.co.uk
Phone: 01354 656726

We regularly publicise local events and groups in our termly newsletter ‘Eye Contact’. You can view the latest edition plus information about the Service's support for families and schools by going to www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/visionsupport

March 2014